Hey there ~~corporate partners!~~

If you're reading this, it means you're considering partnering with The Reach Foundation on a fundraising initiative. Thanks so much for thinking of us, we're chuffed – as are the young people you're backing.

Whether you're an existing partner looking to further staff engagement opportunities, or you're new to the Reach family and looking for ways to get involved and support our work – we would love to chat to you about opportunities to fundraise for Reach!

We are biased, but we think our work is incredibly important – and we're not the only ones. For 28 years Reach has benefitted from the ongoing, generous support from organisations just like yours – those who believe that reducing the development of mental ill health among our young people takes a whole-of-community approach. Thank you for playing a part.

Support from corporate organisations has the power to make a significant impact the next generation of young Australians. Fundraising income allows us to grow our programs, our impact, and reach more young people in the early stages of their development to set them up with the social and emotional skills to thrive.

And we're committed to doing just that.

ABOUT

REACH

Reach

Reach was founded by Jim Stynes and Paul Currie in 1994 with a simple aim – to inspire young people to believe in themselves and get the most out of life. After almost three decades of working with more than one million young Australians, that reason remains true to our core.

We exist to shape a generation of young people to unlock their power and shape their own lives, reducing the development of mental ill health among young Australians.

Through engaging and transformative youth-led workshops, we build social, emotional and resilience skills among young people so they can navigate life's challenges and thrive.

Our signature programs are designed and delivered by young facilitators, for young people. This peer-to-peer approach creates spaces that are relatable, interactive and engaging.

Who we work with

Reach has a long history of working with corporate organisations of all sizes to deliver fully integrated, multi-level partnerships committed to positive community outcomes.

We've also worked with a ton of organisations on an ad-hoc fundraising basis; for those who want to give back when they can.

Bringing together the best of the corporate and not-for-profit worlds to contribute to a cause your people care about, is our bread and butter.

We know what meaningful staff engagement looks like. We understand the importance of CSR in your strategy. And we are here to help your organisation give back to the community it serves.

How your fundraising helps

Since 1994 we have grown to become Australia's most influential youth organisation, connecting with many thousands of schools and diverse communities across the country. We've kicked lots of goals, but our work is far from done.

More than 50% of young people in Australia don't feel confident about their future. Four out of five young Australians have experienced mental health issues over the past two years¹ and seven out of ten high school students have reported high psychological distress.² Most alarmingly one in four young people reported suicidal thoughts.³

Australia is facing a youth mental health crisis. As a nation we urgently need to move the dial on this issue. We need capacity building earlier in life with social and emotional wellbeing at its core and we need to get these skills to as many young people as possible, arming them with the tools to navigate life's challenges and thrive.

Reach's programs are purpose-built to do just that. This vital work is needed now, more than ever.

The best way to reach young people is at school - but many schools don't have the funds or resources to engage important programs like Reach.

Your fundraising support will help us reach more young people by delivering our workshops to more schools in need:

- $510 helps us have vital conversations with a whole class (up to 30 young people)
- $1,700 helps us have vital conversations with a whole year level (100 young people)
- $5,100 helps us have vital conversations with multiple year levels (300 young people)
- $10,200 helps us have vital conversations with a whole school (600 young people)

Develop your fundraising idea

There are a number of different ways organisations can fundraise for Reach, and we can help you formulate a concept that will be fun and engaging for you and your staff (while also getting some solid brand recognition!)

You might already have an idea in mind, but if not – here are some great thought starters:

01 PARTY PLEDGE

Give back by pledging to fundraise for Reach at your mid-year or end of year office celebration. You can collect donations from staff on the day and incorporate some Reach activities and content into your event!

Collect donations from staff and commit to matching the funds they raise, to double the donations to Reach, and double the impact your organisation is making through the initiative

02 DOUBLE THE DOLLARS DOUBLE THE DIFFERENCE

03 SANTA CAUSE

Give the cheap bottle of wine a miss this year...commit to making donations to Reach instead of Kris Kringle gifting.

Got a lunch, conference or other significant work-related event coming up? Dedicate the price of a seat at your event to The Reach Foundation.

04 BUY US A SEAT

05 HOLD A SPECIFIC FUNDRAISING EVENT

You might have another fundraising event in mind – ie a fun run, a managers v staff Olympics, a talent show or a trivia night – let us know what you're thinking and we can help you bring it to life!

Set your fundraising goal

$5000, $50,000, $500,000?

The best fundraisers are those with a clear target so you have a goal to work towards. Sharing this goal with your staff and networks is a great way to bring them along on the journey, so they can see they're contributing to something bigger.

Make sure your target is achievable but optimistic. We can help you set an appropriate goal based on your fundraising idea – just drop us an email and we'll give you a hand.

Every bit counts, all fundraisers – big and small – are welcome here at Reach!

If you commit to raising $5k or more for Reach, we'll send one of our awesome young facilitators to come and speak at your event or to your staff!

Collecting funds

There are multiple different ways to collect funds for The Reach Foundation through your fundraiser. We recommend using an online platform to collect funds and the easiest way is to direct your supporters to our online donor portal, which can be found here. We can supply you with a QR code to link through to this page.

Of course, alternative arrangements are available if you need access to digital payment terminals or would prefer to be invoiced – you just let us know.

Receipts and tax invoicing

As a registered charity, all donations over $2 to The Reach Foundation are tax deductible. Receipts are automatically generated and sent to all donors via our online donation portal.

If your organisation is matching donations, or if you would like to make a donation on behalf of the company, we are able to generate and supply receipt for tax purposes.

Brand alignment and promotion

Aligning your brand to awesome work we do here at The Reach Foundation is one of the great perks of partnering with us on your fundraising initiative!

We will supply you with all logos, information and imagery to use when promoting your fundraising event. Our brand guidelines including terms of logo use can be found on pages 12-18.

Our marketing team is also available to assist you with any further content, branding or promotional support required to make your fundraiser a great success!

By sure to share details with your staff, board, clients, professional community and broader network about how they can support your initiative and in turn, The Reach Foundation.

A halftone pattern drop shadow is used for a more dynamic feel.

The brand should be imperfect, so the placement of the halftone pattern should vary with every execution.

Use notes

The pattern should always be placed below the logotype to suggest an upward movement.

Never place the halftone over the logotype.
